MISSION AND MANDATE

➢ To impart undergraduate and postgraduate education for producing competent veterinarians.

➢ To conduct basic and applied research on various aspects of livestock health, production and livestock products technology.

➢ To carry out veterinary and animal husbandry extension activities through farm advisory services, health care services, organizing animal welfare camps, livestock shows etc.

➢ To provide expert advice on the matters of animal health and production including diagnostic services.

➢ To increase the productivity and profitability of dairy and poultry by adopting improved practices of breeding, management and disease control.

➢ To uplift the living standard of economically weaker sections of farming community.